Lynx trade for Gopher great from Lakeville North

By Bruce Strand

Rachel Banham, a legend for both Lakeville North and the Minnesota Gophers, is coming home to join the Minnesota Lynx.

The 26-year-old guard was acquired Tuesday in a trade with the Connecticut Sun, where she spent four seasons in the WNBA.

Banham issued this statement:

“I couldn’t be happier to be coming home and be a member of this historic franchise. Growing up a Lynx fan, I’ve always admired the way Cheryl and her staff have made the Lynx into a model franchise in the WNBA. I can’t wait to see everyone at Target Center this summer.”

Lynx general manager/coach Cheryl Reeve sent the Sun a 2021 second-round draft pick.

“We are excited to welcome Rachel home to Minnesota,” Reeve stated. “Her ability to shoot the ball is something we valued during this process and we look forward to having her in a Lynx uniform this season and beyond.”

Rachel Banham was the fourth pick in the 2016 draft by Connecticut but her pro career never took off there.

Connecticut used the fourth overall pick in 2016 to take Banham. She did not become a starter there, however, averaging four points and 11.4 minutes per game in four seasons.

The 5-foot-9 Banham has a good opportunity for a new start with the Lynx, who are trying to rebuild after two mediocre seasons.

The Lynx had the best women’s basketball team ever assembled anywhere from 2011 through 2017, with four championships plus two runner-up and one third-place finish where they lost to the champions. They had four players who won Olympics gold medals twice.

The core four leaders of that group are now all gone. Maya Moore, their star of stars, stepped away after 2018 at the height of her career to pursue other interests. The other three were just got past their prime. Lindsay Whalen is now coaching the Gophers, Rebekkah Brunson joined the Lynx coaching staff, and 14-year veteran guard Seimone Augustus recently signed with Los Angeles to finish her career there.

The only remaining all-pro is 6-6 center Sylvia Fowles, who joined them in 2015 and was league MVP in their last championship season.

Banham was Miss Basketball in 2011, finishing with 1,957 points. As a junior she teamed with 2010 Miss Basketball Cassie Rochel to lead North to a 32-0, state Class 4A championship season. They played against each other in the Big Ten as Rachel went to Wisconsin.

In her spectacular career with the Gophers, Banham scored a Big Ten record 3,093 points, tied an NCAA single-game record with 60 points against Northwestern, and averaged 28.6 points as a senior, second-best in the nation. She was Big Ten Player of the Year, first-team AP All-American, and John Wooden Award finalist that year.
Mr. Basketball finalists unveiled

The Mr. Basketball committee named five finalists for the 2020 award. They will be recognized April 5 at the Timberwolves’ game against the Pistons, where winner will be announced.

JALEN SUGGS
Minnehaha Academy

Suggs, a 6-5 guard, recruited by everybody and signed by Gonzaga, has led the Redhawks to three Class 2A titles and a No. 1 ranking in 3A this year. He has 2,764 points, averages 22.2 this year, and excels as a passer, rebounder and defender. And he was Mr. Football this fall.

NATHAN HEISE
Lake City

Heise, a 6-5 guard currently averaging 29.2 points and eight rebounds for the Tigers (23-3) has 97 varsity wins, two state trips and 2,199 points on his ledger. He will play for Northern Iowa. He’s the only non-metro finalist. His sister Taylor was a Miss Hockey (for Red Wing).

DRAKE DOBBS
Eden Prairie

Dobbs, a 6-1 point guard, leads the star-studded 25-0 Eagles with 18.8 ppg in his fourth year as a starter on teams with a 86-32 record and two state trips. A polished all-around player, his 1,956 points includes 83 in state tournament games. He’ll play for D-1 Liberty Baptist in Virginia.

DAWSON GARCIA
Prior Lake

Garcia, a superb athlete in a 6-11 frame, averages 32 points and 10 rebounds for the Lakers (17-7), runs the team from the point about a third of the time. He averaged 27 last year has 1,924 career points, The No. 31 ranked recruit in the country, he signed with Marquette.

BEN CARLSON
East Ridge

Carlson, a 6-9 power forward with a tremendously diverse skill-set, averages 24.7 points and 11.3 rebounds for the Raptors, after leading them to their first state tournament last year averaging 16 and 11. He’s scored 1,916 career points. His college team will be Wisconsin.

Sauk Centre girls have record home streak

Sauk Centre finished unbeaten at home in girls basketball for the seventh consecutive season by defeating Long Prairie-Grey Eagle 59-21 on Thursday evening in the first round of Section 6AA.

The Mainstreeters, coached by Scott Bergman, own the longest home-court win streak in Minnesota prep basketball history, boys or girls, with 93 in a row, according to state hoops historian Matt Pederson.

The last team to beat Sauk Centre at home was Osakis, 49-40, on Jan. 8, 2013. The Mainstreeters finished 27-3 that year and reached the tournament, as they’ve also done in 2015, 2016, 2017 and 2018, when the were Class 2A state champions.

Sauk Centre (25-2), ranked No. 2 in Class 2A, resumes its bid for another state trip Saturday against Pierz at St. Cloud State, 6 p.m. They were stopped last year with an upset loss to Albany in the sectionals.

The previous state girls record home win streak record was 76 by Rochester Lourdes from 1989-96.

The longest boys home win streak is 85 straight by Braham from 2009-16. Braham also has the third-longest girls home win streak, 74 straight, ending in 2015.
The latest round goes to Waseca

Waseca and Marshall will no longer butt heads in sectionals but the fierce rivalry continues in the Big South Conference. Waseca won the latest installment 57-55 on Friday evening (Feb. 21) in the annual clash of the two division leaders, in Waseca.

Waseca, state Class 3A runner-up last year, dropped to Class 2A this year and is ranked No. 2. Marshall is ranked No. 5 in Class 3A.

With 13 teams in the Big South, they split into East and West, and the division winners duel at the end of the season for the overall crown.

“The last few years, it’s come down to Waseca and Marshall slugging it out,” said Waseca coach Seth Anderson. “The games have always been great battles.”

There’s been three highly-ranked teams in Section 2AAA in recent years, with Mankato East also in the fray, which “has left two out of the state tournament every year,” said Anderson. In Section 2A this year, the only other ranked team is No. 7 Minnesota Valley Lutheran.

Kyreese Willingham snagged the ball and threw it ahead to Morgan sprinting toward the other basket. Morgan was pushed from behind and the referees ruled it a flagrant foul. With eight-tenths of a second left, Morgan made one of two free shots, then got fouled again on the inbounds pass and again made one of two.

Morgan logged 16 points and 13 rebounds, Willingham 16 points, and Dufault 12 points and six assists. For Marshall, Bryce Lance tallied 18 points and Noah Peutz 13.

Pelican Rapids is heading into playoffs with a 25-0 record this season, marking the first unbeaten regular season in the program’s history.

That’s on the heels of last year’s 26-2 season, marking the most wins the Vikings ever had. The fun ended in the Section 6A semifinals last year with a 49-46 loss to Ada-Borup, whom they had beaten 57-54 in the season opener.

“We have good mix of size, strength and speed,” coach Brian Korf said about a unit that’s won 51 of its last 53 games. “The team has good chemistry and work ethic. We have solid inside and outside game. The girls play hard defensively and rebound well.”

The No. 5 ranked Vikings have perhaps a tougher road to state this year, moving up to Class 2A. Their section includes Hawley (20-5), whom they’ve beaten 49-48, No. 2 ranked Fergus Falls (22-4) and Roseau (22-6). Pelican opened against Barnesville on Thursday evening. The winner faces Crookston or East Grand Forks on Saturday at Concordia.

Pelican’s floor leader is Maddie Guler, 5-2 senior point guard who averages seven points, five assists and three steals. She’s been a starter for four years after playing beyond 2,000-point scorer Mackenzie Korf in eighth grade.

“But Maddie is a great defender, with great court vision, and a high basketball IQ,” coach Korf said.

Greta Tollefson, 5-10 junior, averages 18 points, six rebounds and four assists. She’s a starter since eighth grade, and a 1,000-pointer. Anna Stephenson, 5-11 junior, averages 16 points, six rebounds and three assists.

Chris Paulson, 5-7 junior guard, averages six points and two steals. Riley Paulson, 5-9 senior post, is a solid post defender averaging six points and six rebounds. Top subs are 5-4 senior Abby Syverson, 5-6 junior Allie Haiby and 5-9 sophomore Karina Torres, who add about 14 ppg between them.

The Vikings’ closest wins were 49-48 over Hawley, where they led by four and gave up a 3-pointer at the buzzer; 66-64 over Dilworth-Glyndon-Felton (9-16), with free shots by Guler, Stephenson and Tollefson in the last minute pulling it out; and 32-27 over Crookston (20-7), which was not a slow-down game, just one with poor offense by both teams.

Teams with 15 or more wins they’ve beaten are Crookston, Hawley, Ada-Borup, Perham, Breckenridge, Badger-Greenbush-Middle River.

The Vikings, Heart of Lakes Conference champions, are seeking their third state appearance, joining the 2001 and 2013 teams.
Perham fends off Esko 42-41, remains unbeaten

Perham remained, just barely, one of four unbeaten boys teams in the state as they fended off Esko 42-41 on Friday, Feb. 21, in Esko. Elijah Morris, fouled on a drive to the hoop, made the first of two free shots to break a 41-41 tie, and Esko missed a last-second shot. Esko effectively slowed the pace more than Perham wanted and led by as much as nine points. Morris scored 17 points and Charlie Rassmussen and Finn Diggins 10 each for Perham (24-0). Eli Blue and Peyton Wefel notched 12 points each and Riley Fischer 11 for Esko (18-7). The two northern powers are 170 miles apart but have played each other the last five seasons, with Perham winning the last three after Esko took the first two. The other unbeatens are Eden Prairie, St. Croix Prep and Southwest Minnesota Christian. The only girls unbeatens are Hopkins and Pelican Rapids.
Como Park girls nab another Twin Cities title

Led by sophomores, St. Paul Como Park won the Twin Cities girls basketball championship game — for the sixth straight year — over Minneapolis South 69-61 Saturday at home. Sophomore guard Ronnie Porter delivered 21 points and six assists for the Cougars. Adding 14 points each were two more sophs, Kaylynn Asberry and Cloey Dmytruk, the latter of whom also blocked six shots. Como Park is 19-4 with 13 straight wins and ranked No. 7 in Class 3A. Their coach Alexis Gray-Lawson, a former pro player in the WNBA and Europe. For Minneapolis South (24-3), junior guard Jade Hill scored 28 points and her eighth-grade sister Angel scored 19. Como Park was 12-0 in the St. Paul Conference. Minneapolis South was 10-0 in the Minneapolis Conference.

Payton Danielson finished her career at Mabel-Canton as the school’s all-time leader (girls and boys) with 1,580 points and 503 steals, also ranking second with 988 rebounds, reported her coach, Adam Wilder. The 5-4 guard averaged 12.5 points, 10 rebounds and 4.2 steals on a 10-16 team this season.

Will Tschetter, state scoring leader, dominated with 44 points and 15 rebounds as Stewartville beat No. 3 ranked Lake City 77-72 on Saturday evening at home. Tschetter, a 6-8 junior forward, averages 34.4 points per game. Mr. Basketball finalist Nathan Heise scored 32 for Lake City. Lake City (25-3) beat Stewartville (22-5) earlier in the season 70-45.

Mankato East boys are 21-0 in the Big Nine after turning back Austin 65-57 on Monday, led by Jordan Merseth with 21 points and eight rebounds, shooting 9-for-10. The Cougars can wrap an unbeaten Big Nine season against Faribault on Friday evening. Rochester Mayo finished 17-5 and Austin is 16-5 with a game left.

In last week’s edition of MBBN, we noted that Asher Zubitz of Mountain Iron-Buhl had the most career points every by a freshman boy in Minnesota with 1,454 through 23 games this year. For the record, the most ever by a girl through her freshman year is 1,831 by Braham’s Rebekah Dahlman, who graduated in 2013 with a state girls record of 5,060 points.

She got 1,000th on last shot of career; sis helped

Ally Bruegger of Maple River became a 1,000-point scorer on the final shot of her career, with a big assist from twin sister Abby, reports their coach, Devin Drager.

Brugger scored 21 points in a 72-64 loss to Fairmont in the first round of sectionals Friday. That last basket came with 8.4 seconds left, giving her 1,001 points.

“Ally did not know that she needed only 20 points to reach this milestone,” Drager said. “However, her twin sister, Abby, knew it, and was determined to make sure it happened!

“Abby passed up an open layup to make the pass that led to a layup by Ally to surpass 1,000. A pretty cool way for both of them to end their careers at Maple River.”

Legacy Christian boys make swift rise to 20-4 season led by juniors

Legacy Christian is enjoying its best boys basketball season in a long time with a 20-4 record, That’s a marked improvement from 9-18 last year and 5-25 the year before.

The Andover school has a new coach and activities director this year in Nathan Bellefeuille, previously director of the Crossfire AAU program and a college assistant coach with Northwestern-St. Paul.

Jake Wald, junior guard who transferred from St. Francis this year, is the Lions’ leading scorer with 18.4 points per game. The top four scorers are all juniors. The others are guard Harley Kendall (12.1 ppg), forward Trenton Harrison (11.2) and forward Brian Halcomb (8.8).

Legacy Christian has had just three previous winning seasons in the last 15 years, the best being 18-9 in 2009-10.
Pacesetter Sports will conduct its 28th annual Minnesota Youth Basketball Championships for teams in grades 4-9, starting with region playoffs from February through April.

This one-class, statewide competition involving 600 to 800 teams will start with eight regional qualifiers.

The regionals are as follows. Region 1 in Rochester and Stewartville, Region 2 in Mankato, Region 3 in Redwood Falls, Region 4 in Mora and Willow River, Region 5 in Paynesville, Region 6 in Alexandria, Region 7 in Grand Rapids and Mountain Iron-Buhl, and Region 8 in Bemidji.

The region champions are invited to the Minnesota Youth Basketball State Championships in Maple Grove in June. The champion and runner-up at the state tournament are invited to the Pacesetter Great Five-State Championships in Minneapolis along with top teams from Wisconsin, Iowa, North Dakota and South Dakota.

All teams in that tournament will have at least one game on the main Target Center floor.

Teams may register online now by visiting our web site at www.pacesettersports.net.

The Pacesetter Minnesota Invitational Tournament has been one of the premier summer tournaments in the Midwest since 1991. NBA players Joel Przybilla, Mike Miller, Kris Humphries, and Nate Wolters are a few of the many top players who have played in the MIT.

The top teams from the 5-state area of Minnesota, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin are invited annually. All teams play 5-6 games in two days. Teams play in “regional” brackets on Saturday (3-4 games) and advance based on Saturday results for Sunday Final Four brackets (2 games).

Teams that win the prestigious MIT championship will receive individual plaques. Teams with high finishes receive medals with neck ribbons.

One of the top facilities in the state will host this event: Clemens Field House at the College of St. Benedict (St. Joseph, MN).
